Morison KSi rebrands to Morison Global

Morison KSi, a top-ten international association of high-quality professional services firms, has announced today that it has rebranded as Morison Global.

This rebrand celebrates the association's worldwide membership base of 150 member firms across more than 75 countries and immediately makes the brand internationally relevant. In 2020 the association released a new visual identity, and the name change is the final piece of the brand refresh jigsaw. Morison Global is now positioned for an exciting phase of growth and development and to deliver its vision – Building Better Business Globally.

“

Morison Global Chair, Paul Wan, said:

The rebrand to Morison Global is a very important milestone for the association. We celebrated our 30th anniversary last year, and I am very proud to see how Morison Global has evolved to become a high quality, global brand name.”

“

Morison Global CEO, Kenny Young, said:

With our new name, we look forward to better representing our member firms, to ensure their international reach is highlighted. Our members are the core of the association, and we want to ensure a strong and cohesive global identity to support their collaboration and progressive efforts, not just with each other, but also in the quality they deliver to their clients.”
